Ginseng Rules

Harvest Season: Sept. 1 - Dec. 31

Ginseng harvesters do not need a license to dig or sell ginseng to a licensed dealer.

It is illegal to harvest wild ginseng out of season. It is illegal to harvest ginseng on state property. To harvest legally, a ginseng plant must have at least three prongs and a flowering or fruiting stalk, or at least four internodes on the rhizome. It is illegal to harvest plants not meeting these criteria.

It is required that mature fruits and any seeds on the harvested ginseng be planted in the vicinity where the plant was dug and in the manner that encourages germination. For more information contact the Division of Nature Preserves, 402 W. Washington St., W267, Indianapolis, IN 46204, (317) 232-4052 or visit www.in.gov/dnr/naturepr/

Shooting Ranges

The following pages include a statewide listing of shooting ranges that are open to the general public. Please contact the shooting range in your area with questions concerning the range, range hours and any fees that may be associated with the facility. This listing is published as part of the DNR's Shooting Range Grant Program.

The DNR shooting range program is a federal grant program that provides 75 percent matching assistance to local units of government and not-for-profit agencies for development and improvement projects on shooting ranges that are open to the public. Funding for this program comes from the Federal Aid to Wildlife Restoration Act, commonly referred to as the Pittman-Robertson Program. These funds are made available from a small user fee on rifles, shotguns, handguns, ammunition and archery equipment.

The DNR divisions of Fish and Wildlife, Law Enforcement and Outdoor Recreation and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service joined together in a cooperative effort to make these federal funds available to local agencies and organizations for their local shooting sports projects. Grant applications are available from the Division of Outdoor Recreation and are due back before Nov. 1. For more information call DNR Law Enforcement (317) 232-4010 or DNR Outdoor Recreation (317) 232-4070.
